Winter Wonderland

Dark, winter days are often embraced by quilters, who happily hunker down in sewing rooms and quilt the days and evenings away. May the quilts on these pages, filled with sparkling snow and frosty vistas, give you a boost of inspiration for your next winter project!

Northern Magic is evident in this piece designed and quilted by Terry Rowland.

January in the Park designed by Trish Johnson

This wintry, postcard quilt, Serenity, is made by Sheryl Garrett of Moosomin, SK.

Observing fresh snow on a sunny day inspired Jaynie Himsl to create Diamonds in the Snow... the many diamonds are always just out of reach!

This modern, iceberg-inspired quilt pillow is designed and quilted by pattern designer Cristina De Miranda of Ships & Violins, Toronto, ON.

Snowman Crazy Quilt is designed, made, quilted and embroidered by Angela Grasse.

Tobogganing in Toronto submitted by Trish Johnson.

With winter fast approaching, Linda Kyle shares A Journey to Light. A raw-edge fusible appliqué quilt designed by McKenna Ryan of Pine Needles.

Canadian Wilderness, made and quilted by Lyne Mielke, is a special gift for friends in Belize.

Snow Bears is designed, pieced and machine quilted by Anne Ruhl Murray. Inspired by a Hoffman® Call of the Wild digital panel, Snow. Photograph by Evelyn Silva.

Colette Dumont designed and made this wintry, snowy owl quilt, Ookpik. The owl is designed from a photo by M. Gilles Archambeault. To correct an error in the 2019 autumn issue of Canadian Quilter, the quilt is made from 100% cotton and the bias is 45% nylon/55% metallic.

This snowman's smile is enchanting and Linda Kyle couldn't resist! She appliquéd and quilted Frosty Friends, designed by Joan Jones of Seams Like Home.

Melissa Rice designed and made two quilts, the skidoo quilt is a donation to the Newfoundland and Labrador Snowmobile Federation, while the snowboarding quilt is a gift for young man, who loves to snowboard!

Mini-quilt pillow case designed and quilted by Xenia Antipova—sent all the way from Cyprus!

Terry Rowland collaged and quilted this combination of northern lights and polar bear, titled Nanook. ❄️
