Entry Procedure

Entry is open to all Canadian citizens and permanent residents. Non-residents of Canada can only enter if they are members of the CQA/ACC. No member of the CQA/ACC Board of Directors, its staff or contractors may enter a quilt in the NJS.

For an entry to be accepted please review the following:

- The online entry form must be filled in completely, including all the required photographs.
- If photographs do not conform to requirements by the entry deadline your entry will not be accepted.
- Once your entries are submitted, you will be prompted to proceed to our secure online payment page. Fees per entry: Members $40.00 Non-Members $85.00. (GST/HST applies.)
- If you experience issues with online payment, the entry will be accepted as incomplete and assigned a “pending” status. In such cases, you will receive an email with instructions on how to complete the entry process.
- The Jury Coordinator may contact the entrant to discuss an entry that may be in the wrong category and, with the entrant’s permission, may move the entry into another category.
- There is no limit on the number of entries per entrant.

- All entries must be received and completed – with no pending status – before 12:00 PM (noon) EST on February 17, 2023. Incomplete entry forms not finalized by February 17, 2023 will be refused.
- By completing the NJS Entry Form you are agreeing to allow your work to be displayed for the duration of the NJS. If your work is accepted into the NJS and then is not available for the exhibit, subsequent entries from you will not be considered for two consecutive National Juried Shows.
- Submissions will be juried/judged according to CQA/ACC NJS Quilting Standards.

- Entries will be selected based on the quality of the digital images you submit and the accompanying Artist's Statement.
- Decisions of the jurors and judges are final; there is no appeal process.

Entry Requirements and Rules

- Entries that are a direct copy or interpretation of another artist's work are to be entered in the appropriate art categories as per Category descriptions.
- Entrants must give credit on the Entry Form if their entry features a "work of art" or utilizes an image or photograph created by someone other than the entrant(s).
- Entrants are responsible for obtaining permission from the original artist and must be prepared to provide documentation should a challenge arise.
- Regarding Indigenous design, permission must be received from the artist, an Elder or other respected community member to ensure appropriate use of cultural symbols. Entrants must be prepared to provide documentation should a challenge arise.
- The Entrant represents and warrants to the CQA/ACC that their entry does not infringe upon, violate, or misappropriate any copyright or other intellectual property or proprietary right of a third party.
- Entries started in a workshop or resulting from a workshop are to be entered in the appropriate categories as per Category descriptions, with credit given.
- Entrants must acknowledge, on the Entry Form, if the entry OR ANY PART OF THE ENTRY was made from a pattern/book/magazine or social media and credit must be give.
- Historical blocks in the public domain may be used.
- Entries from kits will not be accepted in any category.
- Group Entry:
 - Group quilts can be entered in any category.
 - Groups consist of three or more people, none receiving payment for any part of the work.
 - All group members must be CQA/ACC Members in good standing.
 - The entry may be either a single quilt or individual pieces arranged to hang as one item.
- Work must have been completed after January 1, 2021
- Work must not have been shown in a Canadian national-level juried/judged quilting exhibition/competition prior to June 2023.
- Quilts must not exceed 436 inches in perimeter. No one side may exceed 109".
- All entries must be 3 layers held together with a stitch.

- Quilting stitches are not required to be visible on the back of framed or mounted art quilts.
 - Framed or mounted art quilts must have clear assembly instructions included with the work.
 - Work behind glass will not be accepted.
 - Entries must be able to be displayed by hanging on pipe and drape.
 - All entries must include a 4" hanging sleeve. Split sleeves are acceptable.
 - If a wall quilt requires a second sleeve to assure proper hanging, you must advise the NJS Jury Co-Ordinator to ensure that arrangements can be made.
 - Signatures or any other identifying mark on the front of your submission must be covered by the artist or the piece will be ineligible for judging.
 - The Artist's Statement is a maximum of 50 words. Do not include names or other information that would identify the maker(s).
 - Attention: If your quilt is accepted into the NJS you are responsible for all shipping costs, to and from the Show.
 - For international entries, US and other countries, you are also responsible for all customs arrangements and all shipping costs.
- Quilts for Sale: If you wish to take advantage of the option to sell your quilt at Quilt Canada, please note that CQA/ACC will retain 20% of the sale price as a commission.

Photography Standards and Requirements for the National Juried Show (NJS)

- Your submitted photographs will be used for the Jurying process and, if accepted, will be used on our website, magazine and social media.
- All photos are to be taken of the front of the FINISHED quilt.
- Ensure all images are in focus.
- Do not crop or edit your photos. All accepted NJS quilt photos will be professionally edited.
- Images must be free from textual or other information revealing the identity of the artist.

- Newer model cameras or smart phones that can be set for high resolution photos are necessary.
- Photos from I-Pads do not have high enough resolution; please do not use.
- Images must be submitted in JPG format and be 3-5 MB in size. If you're using a smartphone camera that has options for image size, be sure to use the largest setting.

Required Photos:

- For all wall quilts, submit four (4) digital images: full view, quilting detail, construction detail, and binding detail as defined below.
- For all bed quilts, submit five (5) digital images: full view, quilting detail, construction detail, binding detail, and a bed quilt photo.

Photo Definitions:

Full View:

- The full view image must show the overall view of your work including all edges and be taken straight on (parallel to the quilt edges). See diagram above.
 - Ensure there are no fingers, clips or pins visible on the quilt front.
 - Hang the quilt on flat surface or rod, not a clothesline.
 - If necessary, use a pressed white or light neutral sheet behind to avoid distracting clutter.

- Use a tripod or ladder for your camera to rest on.

Quilting Detail:

- This is a close-up image of the quilting, taken approximately 10” to 15” away from the quilt.

Construction Detail:

- This is a close-up image of any technique or embellishment you’d like to feature.

Binding Detail:

- The binding detail shot should be a front view of the quilt’s edge that shows a corner or some other detail that illustrates how the quilt has been finished.

Bed Quilt Photo:

- Display the full quilt on an appropriately sized bed.
- Ensure that the photo shows both the top and how the quilt hangs off the bed in relation to the floor.

Photo Labelling:
