Can't attend? And worse ... It is past the refund date!

Yes, please contact the Registrar if you will not be able to attend, it is possible that we could have a waiting list and if so, and if both parties agree, you might be able to arrange to sell your seat in a workshop.

This would strictly be a transaction between the two attendees. The Registrar will not participate other than to get permission of both parties to connect. We need as much advance notice as possible for this to be successful. Should this sale occur, please advise the Registrar that it has happened so that the class lists can be prepared with the correct person on it.
